

Summer Reading 2024
AP Language
Mr. Peters

Welcome to AP Literature, a course dissecting a wide variety of different authors around the globe. We will analyze many ideals and identities through several different eras of literature.

1. Your first assignment is to choose two of the following novels to read over the summer:

I) Daniel James Brown's The Boys in the Boat

II) Steve Levitt's Freakonomics

III) David Grann's Killers of the Flower Moon

IV) Malcolm Gladwell's The Tipping Point

While there are no formal assignments to complete during the summer, you should be prepared for an in-class essay upon your return to school in the fall.

2. Your second summer assignment is to read any book of your choice. The requirements are flexible, but your selected reading must be a full-length novel, play, non-fiction book, or poetry/short story compilation.
 - Students should email me no later than July 1st with the novel they are selecting so I can approve or suggest another novel.
